Seeing How to Sleep.

"Why do you want a light left in your room when you go to bed, dear?" asked little Lela's mother.

"Are you afraid?"

"No, mama," replied Lela, "I want it so that I can see to go to sleep."

IN MEMORIAM.

To our dear father and grandfather, who departed this life on the 11th day of December, 1921. Born November 20, 1847.

A precious one to us has gone, A voice, we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled.

We miss him, Oh, how we miss him, And our hearts are filled with pain, But when Jesus opens the pearly gates Our dear, sweet father we'll see again.

We long to see his face again, We long to kiss it once more; But we will see the dear one, When Jesus opens the pearly gates.

He passed away and went to rest, The dearest of all we loved, But now he's walking the golden streets, In that glorious land above.

We loved him dear, Oh, we loved him, But God, He loved him best, And came and took him home with Him.

To that blessed land of rest, He was a precious father, To our now broken hearts, It is so hard to think that he And all of us must part.

He is gone, but not forgotten, Never will his memory fade; Loving thoughts will always linger Around the grave where he is laid.

So good-bye, blessed father, On earth we'll never meet again, But we will meet you in that mansion Where there will be no more pain.

From his heart-broken daughter and grandson MRS. S. C. GRAY, J. D. RHOAD.

MASTER'S SALE.

State of South Carolina, County of Bamberg.

J. D. Copeland, plaintiff, vs. J. F. Lancaster, defendant.

By virtue of a decretal order issued to me by his honor, H. F. Rice, resident judge of the Second Circuit, bearing date the 14th day of December, 1921, directing me to sell the lands of the defendant, J. F. Lancaster.

Now, therefore, in conformity with said decretal order, I will sell all and singular the lands and tenements of J. F. Lancaster at salesday, January 2, 1922, described as follows:

"All that certain piece or tract of land together with the buildings and improvements thereon, situate, lying and being in Buford's Bridge Township, county and state aforesaid, measuring and containing Three Hundred and Fifty acres more or less, and bounded on the east by estate lands of William Nimmons and J. A. Kennedy; east and south by lands of J. A. Lancaster; on the west by lands of J. A. Lain and J. B. Browning, formerly J. A. Kennedy's. This being a part of what was years ago known as the old Jones Place, and is the identical property this day conveyed to me by deed of Mrs. A. W. Ellis."

Said sale to be at the usual hours of sale; terms, cash; purchaser to pay for papers.

J. J. BRABHAM, JR., Master.
